A minimum of 20,000 people are held in solitary confinement every day in the United States. Solitary confinement is cruel and unusual punishment that results in severe and chronic depression, decreased brain function, hallucinations, and suicide. Call for the end of solitary confinement at the U.S. penitentiary at Lewisburg. Close the torture chamber now.

Native American activist and political prisoner Leonard Peltier is currently being held in solitary confinement at USP-Lewisburg. Rally for his freedom—from solitary, from prison. Demand clemency for Leonard Peltier!
