“Mr. Peltier’s unjust incarceration remains a festering sore that impedes better race relations in come to promote healing and a spirit of trust and genuine goodwill toward the Indian peoples of America with an act that serves both compassion and justice.”

“In a nation which so prides itself on a strong and incorruptible judicial system and a human and responsive government, it is sad indeed to think that in nearly a quarter of a century, justice has been elusive for this man. If the matter continues without remedy and action, it will soon be too late for any justice at all. A tragedy of this magnitude cannot be allowed.”

imprisonment is more than an injustice to one man.
It is an injustice to Native Americans and a scar on American history, reminding us of the attempts to silence the rising voices of Native American peoples protesting their plight.”*
